REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant arguments set forth in the response filed 7/20/05 in combination with the following disclosure from the specification, page 25, defines over the prior art and makes the instant invention non-obvious over applicant earlier and cited art.

“As discussed above, the invention also relates to the correct amino acid and nucleotide sequence for NTP. Thus, the invention also relates to antisense oligonucleotides which are complementary to the mRNA which may be transcribed from seq. ID No. 1, wherein said oligonucleotides correspond to regions of the NTP gene that were incorrectly sequenced in W094/23756 and W096/1 5272, e.g. in the region including nucleotides 150-1139 (nucleotides 1-148 of Fig. 16R of published application; nucleotides 1 -149 of Seq. ID No.1: of the present application: were correctly sequenced). This incorrect sequence is present in Seq. ID No. 3 and 4. Thus, the invention relates to an antisense oligonucleotide which is complementary to an NTP mRNA sequence corresponding to nucleotides 150-1139 of seq. ID No. 1 . Preferably, the oligonucleotides correspond to regions including nucleotides selected from the group consisting of nucleotides 150, 194-195, 240-241, 243, 244, 255-256, 266-267, 269-271, 276, 267, 279-280, 293-295, 338-340, 411, 459, 532-533, 591, 633-644, 795-797, 828, 853-854, 876-877, 883, 884-885, 898, 976, 979-980, 999, 1037, 1043-1044, 1092-1096, 1099. and 1116-1119 of seq. ID No. 1.”

The prior art and applicants earlier work do not provide any teachings to target the specified regions recited in claims 35 were the oligonucleotides taught in the instant specification would further differ since the sequence at or surrounding the specified nucleotides is different than that of any earlier disclosed sequences of an NTP gene.

It is noted that the instant application file contains several references that were submitted upon the filing of the instant application. There is not for 1449 ir IDS of record that corresponds to these references. In the event that such papers are not of record due to a separation from the application file in its transition from a paper file to an IFW file, applicant should forward such papers, with evidence of their original filing, to the office so that the examiner may make them of record in the application. All references of record in the IFW file have been considered.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
